LESSONS FROM THE SNOWSTORM

Force of nature can be amazing. A snowfall brought the life in the great cities of the US to a halt. We may not think of water or snow as powerful and it is true that small quantities of them are powerless. When a little water becomes a flood or the snow becomes a foot or more especially combined with wind they can bring mighty men to their knees. Imagine the power of God's creation!

We can learn spiritual lessons from all these.

We can easily maneuver a small quantity of water or a few inches of snow very easily. A flood or heavy snow or sustained wind becomes powerful because of the size or large measure. This shows the power of unity and size. We as individual Christians may be of little power, but not be able to do greater tasks or ministries. However when we stand together united in love and the power of the Spirit we can be very powerful. We all know the saying, united we stand divided we fall. When we stand together we can build up the Kingdom of God. When we stand with God there is nothing we cannot conquer. See what David says, "With you I can advance against a troop; with my God I can scale a wall. He makes my feet like the feet of a deer; he causes me to stand on the heights."

There are certain things no snow or rain can stop. We know that essential services like hospitals, police departments and such will function even in adversities, actually more diligently in adverse circumstances. Wedding engagements and weddings are sometimes planned for winter days. A few years ago some of us travelled to Chicago in the first week-end of January for an engagement. We did not expect much snow but it turned out to be very heavy and it took us 24 hours to reach the destination. The snow could stop the ceremony. Some people could not make it to a wedding in Oregon last week. They missed it but the event took place as planned. May be this happened at several locations last week. There is a great wedding planned for the future, we still don't know the date – the marriage feast of the Lamb of God. No power of man or force of nature can alter the plan made by the groom's father. You and I are invited; whether we will be there is up to each one of us. This world or any power can prevent us from being there only if we allow them to exercise power over us. It is our choice that matters. The day is fixed, invitations are sent out, and all the arrangements are being made. Hail or storm, rain or wind, day or night, the wedding will take place. Would you and I be there?
