Dear mothers of ICA,

It is not every day that you hear how appreciated you are. Sometimes you may even feel that being a mother is a thankless job, meeting all the demands of the children and husband, but never getting the love, support, care and consideration you long for. Nevertheless, you go on with all you need to do for all your loved ones, especially the children without complaints or murmur.

But I am sure your children (and husband) really understand the heart you have for them and your untiring labor of love for their well-being. Mother's day is time when they take a few moments to reflect on the love and sacrifice of their mother. You can see how some of them have expressed what you mean to each one of them. If all the children did get time I know they all would have echoed the same sentiments. They see your strengths, your love, your care, your spiritual heritage and how you pass it on to them. These sentiments are etched deep in their hearts and as they grow into responsible adults, they will appreciate it more and more. They love you and are proud of you. Be proud of your children and more importantly, be proud of yourself for who you are for them. Happy Mother's Day! (P A Samuel)

We love my mom because she takes GREAT care of us, we are so thankful to God for her (Irene & Celine)

This Mother's Day is the first one we are celebrating with my mom in a wheelchair. But it proves something I knew my entire life: my mother is a fighter. She doesn't let anything bring her down, and always looks at the positive aspect of a situation. While others may cry and complain about suddenly becoming paraplegic, my mother chose to be as her name suggests, Jolly, and take the diagnosis as a sign from God that she needed to take a break from the hectic life she had previously led. She is a beautiful, intelligent, and inspiring woman, and I pray every day to have half the strength that she does. I love you mama, happy Mother's Day! (Jessica Jacob)

A mother is someone who guides, cares for, and loves her children unconditionally, and we are so blessed to have a mother who does all of that so well. Thank you for being such a great example of what a child of God should embody. We love you! (Sterlin, Sheena, & Serena)

.....
I thank my mom for providing me with the best care. She is the best cook ever and prepares fresh food every day and makes me drink fresh fruit & veggie smoothie (yuck) so I can be healthy. Even after long tiring work she takes time to spend with me. Thank you mom, I love you. (Elijah Philip)

We love our mom for many reasons. My mom is kind and caring. She is always there for us when I need her. She cooks yummy food for me every day. She tucks us in the night and always says good morning. She is the best. (Aidan and Nadia Mathew)

There's a lot I could say about my mom that I'm sure every other child would say too. Our mothers are strong and warm and loving. They keep everything together whether or not they get any acknowledgment for it. They've made sure to raise us in a church that has guided us. I'm grateful for my own mother and all the aunties in the church who have cared about the children in this church as if they were their own. (Asha Samuel)

I love my mom because she takes GREAT care of me and I am so thankful to God for her. (Evangeline Dara)

.....
My mother is devoted and caring. She is always thinking of others before herself especially when it comes to family. (Shelby Samuel)

Dear mothers of ICA,

Happy Mother's Day! Words cannot really express how much we love all of you. Thank you for working tirelessly for us kids and being there for us when we need it the most. Thank you for praying for us late at night and early in the mornings while everyone else is asleep. I am abundantly grateful for every aunty reading this and thank you for treating me like your own. While I was growing up in this church, it felt as if every aunty was another mom to me. You all share your motherly love with everyone in the church. Especially I would like to thank my mom and my Ammachi for guiding me my whole life. Without you guys I would not be the person I am today. Both of you teach me many life lessons, and you have taught me to love God more than anything else the world can offer. I am so glad I get to see you guys everyday even though it might seem like I take it for granted. God has truly blessed me and my sister with you, thank you for picking me up with your wisdom when I stumble and fall in my life. Both of you are so strong and loving and I hope in the future I can be just like you two. I love you both so much and all the moms of ICA.

Love, Sarah Thomas

p.s. remember to treat yo' self today
